ACCOMMODATION AND VENUE:

Romania is a well-known country between the European countries when it comes to table tennis. We have earned our acknowledgement through hard work quantified, in the past ten years, in results at all levels, from cadets to juniors and seniors.

Romania has hosted many table tennis competitions, in 2021 Cluj-Napoca hosted the fantastic 2021 GAZPROM European Team Championships and in 2022 Romania will host, in September, U21 European Championships, in the same venue, BT Arena, from Cluj-Napoca.

Buzau was all the time a good host for table tennis, with an excellent venue and all the conditions. Situated only 120 km away from the Romanian capital, Bucharest, Buzau held national and European competitions as well as training camps. In terms of accommodation, it takes you 2 -5 minutes to reach the hotels and the restaurant once leaving the Sports Hall. Near the venue you can enjoy a beautiful walk in the green park.

Venue: Sport's Hall 'Romeo Iamandi'
